Introduced by:
(JUD)

AN ACT CONCERNING THE ENFORCEMENT OF PREMARITAL AGREEMENTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 46b-36g of the general statutes is repealed and the
2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2007):

3 (a) A premarital agreement or [amendment] amended agreement
4 shall [not] be enforceable [if] unless the party against whom
5 enforcement is sought proves that:

6 (1) Such party did not execute the agreement voluntarily; or

7 (2) The agreement was unconscionable when it was executed; [or 8 when enforcement is sought;] or

9 (3) Before execution of the agreement, such party was not provided
10 a fair and reasonable disclosure of the amount, character and value of 11 the property, financial obligations and income of the other party; or

12 (4) Such party was not afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult 13 with independent counsel.

14 (b) In any proceeding to enforce a premarital agreement, the 15 agreement shall be presumed to be fair and reasonable if (1) the 16 provisions of subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a) of this 17 section do not apply, and (2) the parties specifically acknowledge in 18 the premarital agreement that the agreement is fair and reasonable.

19 [(b)] (c) If a provision of a premarital agreement modifies or 20 eliminates spousal support and such modification or elimination
 21 causes one party to the agreement to be eligible for support under a 22 program of public assistance at the time of separation or marital 23 dissolution, a court, notwithstanding the terms of the agreement, may 24 require the other party to provide support to the extent necessary to 25 avoid such eligibility.

26 [(c)] (d) An issue of unconscionability of a premarital agreement
 27 shall be decided by the court as a matter of law.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
Section 1	October 1, 2007	46b-36g

Statement of Purpose:

To eliminate unconscionability at the time when enforcement is sought as a basis for nullifying a premarital agreement and to otherwise strengthen the enforceability of premarital agreements.
